Capt. Slade Nash of Sioux City, Iowa, waves from the cockpit of an Air Force Sabre Jet fighter plane just before taking off, Nov. 19, on a record speed flight. He made four roaring passes over the measured course above the Salton Sea at Thermal, Calif., with an unofficial average of 699.9 miles an hour. It was 29 miles an hour better than the old record, set four years ago by an American in a Sabre.

Police Seek Data
On Gang Killings;
Triggrman Seized

Mobster Mocerri Caught
When Slug Is Used in Telephone,
Had $1,800

Los Angeles, Nov. 21 (AP)—With deadpan mobster Leonard C. Mocerri accidentally in custody, police today sought answers to unsolved gangland executions dating from liquor bootlegging days to the modern Mafia.

"The nation's most wanted triggerman" was the tab given Capt. J. E. Hamilton of the Los Angeles police intelligence unit.

He'd given officers the slip 20 years since indictment on four mob killings in Toledo, O., dating from 1931 to 1933. Officers think there might be some recent chapters such as the Bugsy Siegel murder, the killing of Mickey Cohen's attorney Sammy Rummel and the double slaying of Tony Brancato and Tony Trombino in Hollywood a couple years back.

Detroit police also want to ask some questions concerning the demise of hoodlum Jack George whose body was found stuffed in an automobile trunk.

Wife Is Sought

Backtracking to the Mocerri apartment in Hollywood, where he had been paid since May under one of many aliases, detectives found coffee boiling, ice cream melting, but no Margaret.

It's highly unlikely they'll find her dropping slugs into a telephone. That's how Mocerri gave himself away. He had $1,800 in his wallet and a Cadillac at the curb late Tuesday when arrested by telephone company officers, who had been plagued for some time by someone using slugs in that particular phone.

Later through fingerprints, police discovered just who they had in custody, and also found some papers with names, addresses and telephone numbers.

Many Are Questioned
From the list of those brought in for questioning reads like an underworld Who's Who. Among them were Tom Dragna, (Continued on Page 2, Col. 7.)

Execution Set
For Rosenbergs

New York, Nov. 21 (AP)—Federal Judge Irving R. Kaufman today set the week of Jan. 12 for the execution of Julius and Ethel Rosenberg, convicted atomic spies.

Last week the United States Supreme Court refused for a second time to rehear the case of the husband and wife prisoners.

They were convicted March 29, 1951 of passing atomic secrets to Russia, and for many months have been confined in the death house at Sing Sing Prison.

In rejecting the Rosenbergs appeal, the Supreme Court also denied a petition signed by 50,000 persons asking permission to file a brief arguing for a new trial.

Rosenberg, 34, and his wife, Ethel, 36, were sentenced to death last year, the first death sentences meted out by a civil court to civilians under the Espionage Act of 1917.

Convicted with them was Morton Sobell, who was sentenced to 30 years in prison.

Redding Says Thule
Will Gain Population

Copenhagen, Denmark, Nov. 21 (AP)—John M. Redding, U. S. Assistant Postmaster General, predicted today the U. S. Air Force base at Thule in Greenland will become "one of the most important crossroads of the air age." He envisaged a modern city of a half million population at Thule within 10 to 15 years.

Redding was a passenger on the airliner Arild Viking on its trail blazing flight across the polar icecap from California to Europe. The American-built Scandinavian Airlines System plane arrived here last night after a trip that took 28 hours and 7 minutes from Los Angeles. The flying time for the 5,852-mile hop was 23 hours and 38 minutes.

Allies Smash Red
Drive on Ridge

Infantry Loses No Ground to Chinese—Planes Bomb Area

Seoul, Nov. 21 (AP)—Allied infantrymen smashed a fanatical Chinese assault today on Sniper Ridge—on the central Korean front—and stopped lesser attacks elsewhere on the battlefield.

In the air, American Sabre jets clashed with MIG-15s for the fifth successive day and pilots reported one destroyed—by Lt. Richard B. Smith, Jr., Medford, Ore. He damaged one Thursday.

Allied fighter-bombers ranged over a wide area of North Korea. Pilots said they wiped out 70 buildings, seven guns and cut rails in five places. They also pounded the Communist battlefield.

Despite the fierceness of the Red infantry attacks, a U. S. Eighth Army spokesman said the allies lost no ground.

He said an estimated 750 Chinese stormed the frozen, forbidding slopes of Sniper Ridge but were killed, wounded or driven back by stubborn South Korean troops who have lost and retaken the heights 16 times in 38 days.

Hand-to-Hand Fight
Some of the fighting was hand-to-hand.

A Red battalion slammed against Pimpot Hill, the dominating ground of Sniper Ridge last night. The Communists supported their assaults with a tremendous barrage of mortar and artillery.

Within an hour, one company of Chinese pulled out and left two companies to push ahead. But by 10 p. m. the drive was blunted.

The allied spokesman said four Communist armored vehicles, probably tanks, rained 50 caliber machine gun fire on ROK positions on Sniper just before midnight.

Allied artillery drove off the vehicles. Some 80 Chinese infantrymen assaulted Rocky Point nearby and 40 others lunged against South Korean positions on slopes leading up to Twin Peaks.

The hills and ridge span a sector of less than two miles. It was cold—10 degrees above zero (F). Both sides kept up a crackling exchange of gunfire and, early this morning a suicide platoon of Chinese charged Sniper Ridge, hurling hand grenades when they got near ROK foxholes. But the South Koreans held their ground and shortly after dawn the Chinese pulled out.

U. S. Asks Clarity

Incoming Policy Leaders of America Skeptical About Peace Leads

United Nations, Nov. 21 (AP)—The western allies moved closer to agreement today on changes they hoped would bring full support—including that of the U. S.—behind India's compromise plan for ending the Korean War prisoner deadlock.

An eight-nation group headed by the U. S., Britain and France planned to meet behind closed doors in the UN this morning to work over amendments to a plan submitted Wednesday by India's V. K. Krishna Menon. Other nations in the group are Canada, Australia, Turkey, Denmark and Colombia.

They have as a working basis changes suggested yesterday by British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden, who said the Indian plan brings the UN nearer to agreement on the one outstanding issue holding up an armistice in Korea—the prisoner of war problem.

Strong American objections to the original Indian resolution—that it was ambiguous and would not work—had threatened a serious split among the 21 allies backing a U. S.-drafted Korean resolution which the Soviet bloc in the UN already has rejected.

The Americans reportedly insist the resolution be clarified before they can accept it. The resolution calls for a four-nation commission, with an umpire to settle deadlocks, to handle the repatriation of all war prisoners and take care of those who didn't want to return to Red-ruled homes until a political conference decides their fate.

The U. S. reservations apparently have been ironed out to some degree in private talks among the allies.

Eden's endorsement in the General Assembly's Political Committee yesterday of the plan's general outline, and his suggestions for alterations to clarify its main points brought the American comment that "we are moving closer and closer to a settlement."

The first Communist nation to speak since Menon introduced his resolution was Czechoslovakia, whose delegate was listed to appear before the political committee this afternoon.

Others on today's schedule were Australia, Costa Rica, Bolivia and Indonesia.

No Red Reaction
Although the Indians have said they would not have introduced their resolution without reasonable assurance that both Communist and western nations would accept it, there still was no reaction from the Russians.

Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky was expected to ask to speak after U. S. Secretary of State Dean Acheson addresses the committee in the Korean debate next Monday.

But the incoming American leaders of foreign policy—President-elect Dwight D. Eisenhower and his choice yesterday for secretary of state, John Foster Dulles—were reported by the New York Times as being very skeptical that any of the proposals now before (Continued on Page 2, Col. 6)

Wilson Could Find Self
Against Rough, Tough Job

Washington, Nov. 21 (AP)—Charles Erwin Wilson's comment about giving the defense secretary job the "darndest whirl it ever had" can work both ways.

The job has given four men a whirl in the last four years.

Wilson was named yesterday as President-elect Eisenhower's selection as the next secretary of defense. That the president of General Motors faces a tough assignment is shown by the fact that:

The first secretary (James Forrestal) resigned and, broken by the immense burden of his job, committed suicide.

The second one (Louis Johnson) was fired.

The third one, (Gen. George C. Marshall), a soldier by profession, dutifully served but his assignment for a year, then resigned.

The present one, (Robert A. Lovett), let it be known some months ago, before he knew the election would bring a change in administration, that he intended to leave government. He now says he is more anxious than ever, as puts it, to go back as rapidly as possible to what he hopes will be moderately prosperous obscurity.

Washington, Nov. 21 (AP)—Creation of a super council in the Eisenhower administration to mastermind a cold war offensive against the Kremlin seemed assured today by the announcement that John Foster Dulles will be the next secretary of state.

Dulles, like President-elect Eisenhower who announced his selection for the post yesterday, has made clear that his first major new goal in foreign policy will be to wrest the initiative in the global conflict from Russia.

Dulles has declared that one way to go about this is to set up a cabinet council, including not only some regular cabinet members but also "ministers without portfolio" charged only with high-level cold war planning.

Some Feel Bitter
Word that the veteran diplomat, recently a Truman ambassador in the negotiation of the Japanese Peace Treaty, would get the number one cabinet post next Jan. 20 was generally well received by State Department officials here despite some bitterness toward him resulting from his attacks on Truman foreign policies during the presidential campaign.

Dulles Calls FBI
Chief, Asks Check

New York, Nov. 21 (AP)—John Foster Dulles, designated as next secretary of state, said today he has asked J. Edgar Hoover, head of the FBI, to investigate "my life and record."

Dulles told correspondents at a brief press conference at President-elect Eisenhower's headquarters "There is going to be no taint of suspicion about the new State Department."

"That goes for the top, bottom and all in between," Dulles said this was his first act today. His designation to be the next secretary of state was announced yesterday by President-elect Eisenhower.

Dulles said: "The first thing I did today was to speak on the telephone to J. Edgar Hoover, head of the FBI. I asked him to put his best men to work to investigate my life, record and report to Gen. Eisenhower."

At a news conference yesterday, the state public works department announced today that the Creative Painting Co. of Marlborough, bidding $2,156, has been awarded the contract for exterior painting and appurtenant work on the state armory here. Bids were opened yesterday in Albany.

Paint Job Awarded
The state public works department announced today that the Creative Painting Co. of Marlborough, bidding $2,156, has been awarded the contract for exterior painting and appurtenant work on the state armory here. Bids were opened yesterday in Albany.

There is a noteworthy aspect to Wilson's job change: a much bigger job produces a much smaller pay check. The general impression is that his 1951 salary and bonuses totaled about $626,300. He'll get $22,500 from the federal government—and no bonus.

Of all the executive agencies of government, the Defense Department is the largest, the costliest, the most complex, the most technical. Its responsibilities can be grave. Decisions made by a defense secretary can be important in how a battle is fought and how men die.

The number of persons who work under the Defense Department and its armed forces approaches the five-million mark—3,600,000 of whom are in the armed forces, the others civilian employees in the farflung enterprises of the military establishment.

General Motors has a big war force, but nowhere near that large.

The FBI search for Thomas (Three-Finger Brown) Luchese continued, with the federal government trying to serve notice of denaturalization proceedings and possible deportation to his native Sicily.

Luchese was described to the Crime Commission as underworld successor to alleged boss racketeer Frank Costello, imprisoned for contempt of the U. S. Senate Crime Committee.

Hogan said he regarded Luchese "as an associate of the worst characters in the country."

The prosecutor added that his office has had a wire tap on Luchese's telephone off and on since 1946.

Child Cancer Victim Meets Santa

The mailman was busy again today bringing gift packages and other mail to 2½-year-old Lucille Constantino at the Benedictine Hospital where she is a cancer patient. It was announced earlier this week that Lucille may not see the real Christmas and her special Christmas party was held yesterday. She is shown here as Santa Claus from Luckey, Platt & Co., Poughkeepsie, handed her a doll, and with her Rosemarie Stewart (left) student nurse, and Marcia Bell-singer, nurse. Anthony J. Erena, secretary of the local Moose Club announced today that the club is taking up a collection for Lucille. (Freeman photo)

No Action Taken
To Name Successor
To KHS Principal

Baltz Says Discussion to Come in December;
Three Names Are Mentioned

No action has been taken by the Board of Education toward a successor to John Henry Martin, whose resignation as principal of Kingston High School becomes effective at the close of the present semester late in January, Chester A. Baltz, Sr., chairman of the Teachers Committee stated today.

The matter has not been given consideration by that committee or the board but he indicated the question probably would be taken up at the December meeting of the board. Steps must be taken soon to secure a successor, he said, but there has been no decision made as to whether the board will go outside and seek a successor or whether there will be a promotion from within the school system.

Unofficial discussion of the matter of a successor, however, is rife about the city.

Names most prominently mentioned are James Tobin, present guidance counselor at Kingston High School; Harry Gumaer, principal of the Myron J. Michael School, this city; and Clifford Rall, formerly principal of the Michael School and now principal at the Tenally, N. J., high school.

Watershed Recording
The New York water department reported a rainfall of 3.07 inches in 24 hours in the Esopus watershed and Ashokan reservoir area; 2.86 inches at Tannersville, 2.68 at East Jewett, 1.6 at Windham, 1.35 at Westkill and only .059 of an inch at Schoharie.

The city engineer's office reported a rainfall of 1.56 inches for the three days and the intensity of the rain at its height last night was .3 of an inch an hour. The rainfall here for Tuesday and Wednesday was only .48 of an inch.

It was no heavier those two days in the mountain areas.

The New York department reported the Esopus creek at Cold Brook was at its peak crest between 7:45 and 8:50 a. m. today. It was 7.55 feet at 6:45 a. m. Reached 8.27 feet at 7:45, and dropped to 8.18 by 8:50 a. m.

Hogan Is Interested About
Possible Perjury on 'Sales'

New York, Nov. 21 (AP)—District Attorney Frank S. Hogan says he is interested in "five or six matters" involving possible perjury and alleged sales of judgeships stemming from testimony heard at recent New York State Crime Commission hearings.

Hogan said that wherever there are signs of perjury "we'll certainly investigate up to the hilt." He noted, however, that "mere statements" produced at the five-day hearings needed "solid corroboration" before indictments could be obtained.

The FBI search for Thomas (Three-Finger Brown) Luchese continued, with the federal government trying to serve notice of denaturalization proceedings and possible deportation to his native Sicily.

Luchese was described to the Crime Commission as underworld successor to alleged boss racketeer Frank Costello, imprisoned for contempt of the U. S. Senate Crime Committee.

Hogan said he regarded Luchese "as an associate of the worst characters in the country."

The prosecutor added that his office has had a wire tap on Luchese's telephone off and on since 1946.

In respect to the waterfront probe hearings being readied by the commission for early next month, Hogan said:

A rainfall of near flood proportions during the night plus the lighter rains of the previous two days ended the threat of a winter drouth in rural areas dependent upon wells, lessened the threat of woodland fires, and replenished dying streams.

The rain yesterday was heavier in the mountains than in the city, but locally the heavy rains of last night caused no flooding of the Broadway underpass, which had flooded during similar heavy rains last summer.

Local police were notified only of a flooded condition at 10:10 p. m., at St. James street and Albany avenue due to a blocked catch basin, and a sidewalk cave-in in front of 38 Abel street, reported this morning.

Fined on Two Charges
Sutton was arrested by troopers on charges of reckless driving and driving without insurance required of operators under 21. Arraigned before Justice of the Peace Clarence Rappleyea of the town of Ulster, Sutton pleaded guilty to both charges and was fined $50 on the reckless driving charge and $25 on the insurance charge.

Riding in the Sutton automobile at the time of the accident, according to Coroner Kelly, were Mrs. Mabel Sutton, 41; Agnes Attacio, 20, and Silbert Barley, 68. The automobile was traveling in a southerly direction and Van Gasbeck was crossing the highway from east to west at the time of the accident, troopers said.

Van Gasbeck was taken to Kingston Hospital by the hospital's ambulance.

Happened Near Home
The accident happened near the Lincoln Park Inn on Albany avenue extension, troopers said. Van Gasbeck's home was the first house on the Kingston side of the Evergreen Inn.

Van Gasbeck, who was retired, was a native of Accord. He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Ada Van Gasbeck of Accord; his wife, the former Adella Van De Mark; three sons, Walter of Rosendale, Lawrence of Accord and Vernon Van Gasbeck of New Jersey; a brother Roy Van Gasbeck, of Accord; and a sister, Pauline, of New York.

The funeral will be from the Ernest A. Kelly Funeral Home, 111 West Chester street, Sunday at 2:30 p. m. Burial will be in Rosendale Cemetery.

Investigating the accident for the state police were Sgt. Arthur A. Reilly, B.C.I., and Troopers E. L. Ryan and Raymond Kowalski, all of the Kingston station.

London Is Polite
London, Nov. 21 (AP)—John Foster Dulles' designation as U. S. secretary of state got a polite reaction from a foreign office spokesman today.

Stassen is now president of the University of Pennsylvania. He also was a key figure in Eisenhower's nomination.

Humphrey, 62, is president of the M. A. Hanna Company of Cleveland. He is a director of numerous large corporations.

The following are some of the positions held by Humphrey in industry:

President of the M. A. Hanna Company, coal and iron ore shippers; chairman of the executive committee, National Steel Corp.; chairman of the board of the Susquehanna Anthracite Company, of Cleveland; member of the executive committee of the National City Bank, Cleveland; director of the Phelps Dodge Corp.; chairman of the executive committee and director of Industrial Rayon Corp.

It was the second day in a row that Eisenhower had handed out a new list of appointees who will take over key posts in his administration.

James Hagerty, the general's press secretary, announced the new designations.

Only to Korea
New York, Nov. 21 (AP)—Sen. H. Alexander Smith of New Jersey said today President-elect Dwight Eisenhower is going only to Korea, and will not visit Japan or any other countries when he makes that journey.

Smith, ranking member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, had a long talk with Eisenhower this morning on foreign affairs. The conversation mainly concerned the Far East, he said.

Smith visited Korea in 1949, before the fighting started, and again last year.

He said he gave Eisenhower his views on the actions necessary for ending the war. Summarized, they were:

1. An economic blockade of Red China.

2. A complete agreement with the United Nations to provide coordinated action with respect to the Chinese Reds.

Smith explained that he meant mainly "cutting off all trade and intercourse with Red China."

3. Formulating a plan "especially with the British" to determine "where we go from here if the truce talks fail."

Meanwhile, President-elect Dwight D. Eisenhower worked his way through a heavy schedule of callers today in a foretaste of the burdens of public office. He talked with:

Brownell, New York lawyer, was a leader of Eisenhower's campaign for the GOP nomination, and he directed strategy in the election campaign.

Washington, Nov. 21 (AP)—The government reported today that living costs went up fractionally in the 30 days ended October 15. Its index inched up one-tenth of one point. The little change from Sept. 15 means that about one million workers in the automobile and aircraft industries will take a pay cut of one cent an hour effective Dec. 1 owing to living costs declines in August and September.

Hoffner Is Freed After 12 Years in Jail as Murderer

New York, Nov. 21 (AP)—A short, balding man, with a prison pallor, sat in court today and heard the words that he once had been condemned never to hear: "The prisoner is discharged."

Louis Hoffner, 39, who 12 years ago was sentenced to life in prison for a holdup murder he swore he didn't commit, walked out of court a free man.

It marked the end of a long battle by a committee of citizens, and by three attorneys who gave their services gratis in the interest of justice for the short, bespectacled Hoffner.

"Perhaps some day," he said after he was freed, "my case will serve as a lesson to prevent some other innocent man from going to prison. I am profoundly grateful to you all."

He hugged his 70-year-old father, Abraham Hoffner, and two brothers, George 28, and David, 27, and shook hands with other relatives who had gathered for the session before Judge Peter T. Farrell in Queens.

Worked in Laundry

In prison, Hoffner spent most of the years working in the laundry. He said prison authorities wouldn't let him have a trade because "they figure you're as good as dead."

But he has at least two job offers awaiting him.

District Attorney T. Vincent Quinn, in moving for dismissal of the indictment against Hoffner, made a long statement, outlining the case.

He said the results of a lie detector test taken last week showed Hoffner was telling the truth when he denied the crime—something he has done ever since he first was accused in 1940.

He asked to take a lie detector test, but wasn't allowed to do so.

Key basis for upsetting the 12-year-old verdict was the disclosure of the minutes of a police lineup, at which the state's star witness had failed to identify Hoffner, although he did so later at the trial. In throwing out the verdict at a hearing Oct. 22, Judge Farrell said the then-district attorney had erred in not making the minutes of the police lineup—a vital piece of evidence—available to the defense.

An assistant DA, Peter J. Donoghue, discovered the minutes in old files on the case last September, and called attention to them.

Another witness of the holdup murder, who had grappled with the killer, had been unable to identify Hoffner as the man, and a citizens committee said it had found two other witnesses who saw the killer flee—and who said it was not Hoffner.

After the verdict was quashed, Hoffner could have faced a new trial, but Quinn moved to dismiss the indictment.

Said Judge Farrell: "The motion is granted and the indictment is dismissed. The prisoner is discharged."

To Take Away Citizenship

Washington, Nov. 21 (AP)—Atty. Gen. McGranery announced today he proposes to take away the American citizenship of Vito Genovese, described as a New York and New Jersey racketeer.

Russians Are Opposed

Moscow, Nov. 21 (AP)—Soviet newspapers made it plain today that the Russians do not regard the Indian resolution in the United Nations as a correct way to settle the deadlock over repatriation of Korean prisoners of war.

The official news agency Tass said the Indian resolution repeats the statement of the U.S. delegation on "forced repatriation," although it is well known that by talks about the impermissibility of any kind of forced repatriation the American command is making its intention to detain prisoners of war for force.

Case Is Dismissed In Park Mishap

Following settlement of the negligence action brought in County Court by Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Van Housen against Esso Standard Oil Company for damages to their house on Warren street due to a leaking fuel oil tank, Howard C. St. John for plaintiff and A. J. Cook, Jr., for defendant, an action for breach of warranty was moved for trial.

Herman Halpern brought an action against Charles Denkensohn and Arthur Foster to recover under a warranty involving purchase of six cows. Plaintiff alleged he bought six cows and three of them were not up to expectations. Plaintiff sued for the difference in value. John A. Bonomi appeared for plaintiff and Philip Korn and Abraham Streifer for defendants. A motion was made on behalf of the defendants for dismissal of the complaint and the motion was granted.

Suit Over Park Mishap

This morning a negligence action brought by Albert Appa on behalf of his daughter, Rosalind Appa, 15, of Third avenue, Kingston, against the city of Kingston was taken up for trial before Judge Cashin.

Plaintiff alleged she had chipped her teeth in an accident at Forsyth Park on the evening of August 15, 1951, while using the "trolley" at the park. Hubert Richter and Seymour Werblowsky appeared for plaintiff and James A. Abernethy for the city. Plaintiff testified she struck an iron bar on the device and negligence on the part of the city in supervising the play area was alleged. Plaintiff claimed the device is one that requires immediate supervision and that on the evening in question no park supervisors were at the scene.

Andrew J. Murphy, 3rd, superintendent of recreation, testified three supervisors were on duty in the park and instructions had been given to circulate in the vicinity of the iron bar. He said a dance was being held, and near the supervisors' station which is about 150 feet from the device.

Complaint Dismissed

At the conclusion of the testimony given by plaintiff and her friend, Elaine Stopkie, a motion was made by Abernethy on behalf of the city to dismiss the complaint on the grounds no negligence on the part of the city had been shown. Counsel for plaintiff argued that negligence had been shown in that no supervisor was near the device and instructions had been given to have the supervisors in the vicinity of the dance that evening. The particular device it was charged was of such a nature that supervision of its use was required.

Judge Cashin granted the motion to dismiss the complaint. Thirty days was granted to make an appeal.

Jurors were excused until 2 o'clock Monday and court resumed until that time.

Financial and Commercial

New York, Nov. 21 (AP)—Railroads were higher today in an otherwise generally mixed stock market.

The railroads posted gains running to between 1 and 2 points at the best while the remainder of the list ranged major fractions higher or lower.

Business picked up on the advancing phases of the market and contracted when prices faded. Volume ran at a rate right around yesterday's 1,740,000 shares.

Among major divisions, lower trends were shown in steels, merchandising issues, farm implements and aircrafts.

Following in the wake of the railroads, but with much less vigor, were rubbers and air lines. All other divisions were steady or fractionally mixed.

The market started fast with a number of large blocks hitting the tape early. Among them were several railroads.

Indian Plan . . .

the UN Assembly could produce a Korean armistice.

The Times said Dulles' skepticism was based on the "unending difficulties" the U. S., Britain and France had encountered in trying to negotiate an independence treaty for Austria with the Soviet Union.

Dulles Sees Catch

"After the western powers gave way on the points previously in disagreement, the Soviet Union brought up the issue of Trieste, and it is understood that Mr. Dulles feels that the Communists would find something else if the Korea prisoner issue were settled," The Times said.

In his speech yesterday, delivered after he had a luncheon conference with Eisenhower, Eden asked Menon to revise two main points of his resolution.

He suggested the commission's umpire should be a full member of the group, which Menon had proposed be made up of Poland, Czechoslovakia, Sweden and Switzerland.

And the Briton suggested that more definite provision be made for caring for those prisoners who have not been repatriated 90 days after the armistice.

The Indian resolution says only that their destination will be decided after that time by a political conference.

Allies Smash Red

ported a series of Communist attacks all along the 155-mile battle line. On the extreme eastern front, North Korean troops stabbed twice last night and twice this morning at allied positions south of Kosong in the Anchor Hill sector. All the probes were driven off.

On the western front, west of Yonchon, Chinese platoons attacked two outposts in early morning darkness and UN troops withdrew temporarily. Allied field guns pummeled the enemy and allied forces reoccupied the positions without opposition.

On the central front, southeast of Capitul Hill, 175 Chinese hit an allied outpost early today and engaged UN defenders in hand-to-hand fighting. The fighting raged for three hours until Eighth Army troops brought up reinforcements and the Chinese broke

Japanese Hail Dulles in Post

Tokyo, Nov. 21 (AP)—John Foster Dulles, who fashioned freedom for this island nation, today was hailed by Japan on his appointment as U. S. secretary of state.

Dulles won the hearts of Japanese when he served as chief architect for Japan's peace treaty. Last April, this momentous document lifted a conquered nation to its present proud status of a free and sovereign country.

Tokyo's major newspapers splashed across their front pages the news that President-elect Dwight Eisenhower had tapped Dulles for the vital secretary of state post.

Pictures of Dulles were on the news pages. Warm praise for Dulles was in editorial columns.

Officially, Japanese government spokesmen withheld comment; not wanting to discuss internal American affairs. But quietly, they were pleased.

In Las Vegas, Nev., officers arrested John Battaglia, brother of Charlie (The Bat) Battaglia, another mobster wanted for questioning in the Hollywood shootings of Brancato and Trombino. John was on the other end of the slug phone call.

contact at 5:30 a. m. and withdrew.

The Red assault was supported by 750 rounds of artillery and mortar fire.

Light bombers of the U. S. Fifth Air Force hunted trucks a second successive night and reported destruction of 175 Communist supply vehicles on main routes in North Korea. This raised to 350 the total of vehicles knocked out in two nights.

Dulles Plan . . .

Eisenhower soon—which Dulles has indicated he will not do—these officials expect he will shortly open an office near that of Secretary of State Acheson.

They believe Dulles will readily accommodate himself to the work of the department and that because of his experience in the field the transfer of control will be smoother than it would have been with almost any other successor.

Might Act Informally

There is hope here that Dulles will be able to advise informally on and observe decisions which must be made by the present administration in the next two

Would Change Legal Age

London, Nov. 21 (P)—Girls should be permitted to marry at 15 if they are biologically ready. Dr. Marie Stopes, famed writer on marital problems, has suggested to a royal commission on marriage and divorce. However, she said yesterday, she would not encourage such early marriages, she just thinks they should be legally possible. "The present age of 16 is too high and ignores the biological tendency to marriage," Dr. Stopes said in a memorandum. The expert, who is 72, said one-third or one-fourth of Britain's girls are ready for marriage at 15.

A new device to help eliminate the danger of after-dark automobile accidents is being promoted by the Kingston Junior Chamber of Commerce on a month-long basis.

The campaign is to promote for safety sake the sale of red and silver "Scotch lite" tape which is designed to make parked and moving cars more visible at night. Marvin I. Millens, chairman of the drive, said that the tape is visible for more than half a mile, can be seen 75 per cent quicker than tail lights and provides a complete outline of cars equipped with it.

The drive was originally scheduled to open Thursday night but due to inclement weather only a brief ceremony was held at Jack's service station on North Front street where a patrol car of the local police department was the first to have the tape attached.

The project will continue all day today from 9 a. m. to 6 p. m. and again tomorrow. The drive will be held every Friday and Saturday until mid-December, the committee reported.

With Millens as the over-all chairman of the Jaycee movement, others assisting him are John R. Shults, Wayne G. Archibald and Robert S. Stedje as campaign team captains. Alfred E. Smith is in charge of publicity.

Backed by the National Safety Council, the tape is being handled for sale and application by Jaycee chapters throughout the country for use on automobile bumpers.

KINGSTON, NEW YORK, NOVEMBER 21, 1952

NEWSPAPER EDITORS POINT THE WAY

Before November 4, impartial surveys had gone far to refute charges that we have in this country a "one-party press," if that term be taken to mean a press which unbalances its news coverage of major political events in favor of one candidate over another.

If the term be applied to editorial opinion, that is something else. About two-thirds of the nation's newspapers supported General Eisenhower in the recent election. A considerable share stayed on the fence, and the rest went for Governor Stevenson.

In the past, these papers have sometimes plumped 3 to 1 and 4 to 1 for the Republican presidential ticket. Since the Democratic nominees had been uniformly successful—up to November 4—this fact was consistently cited to prove that "the press is out of touch with the people."

Well, obviously, the nation's dailies and weeklies were not out of touch this time. They very sharply reflected the national mood that it was time for a change. But actually that point is secondary.

Editors are presumed to be somewhat more intimately acquainted than average folk with public affairs, to have superior information on which to base judgments of men and events. If they are so equipped, should it not then be their function to try to mold and lead public opinion, rather than simply to follow or reflect it?

Like any other humans, they may and do commit errors of judgment. But that is no reason they should abandon their public responsibility to help guide the national mind.

NATO WAITS FOR IKE'S WORD

The members of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization have wisely decided to put their 1953 defense planning for Europe on a tentative basis until they can hear what General Eisenhower proposes for NATO.

The NATO council is set to meet December 15 to set next year's military goals. But it now appears a second meeting, in March, will be held to modify or confirm these goals in the light of later American developments.

Except as a preliminary, the December 15 date seems utterly impractical, anyway. NATO makes up its plans for the calendar year. But America, chief source of economic and military aid, votes this assistance by the fiscal year—starting and ending in July.

Thus, in December, NATO can never know what amount of help to expect after July 1 of the following year. The participating countries can measure the first six months, of course, since money for such aid always is voted by Congress in the previous spring. But that's not enough of a guide.

This situation plainly is aggravated in a presidential year when a change-over occurs, as is the case this time. NATO cannot expect Eisenhower to disclose his intentions—except in the most general way—before he has authority to make decisions.

Hereafter, therefore, the NATO planning sessions before the year-end should be viewed as strictly tentative and exploratory. The real decisions must necessarily be delayed until the shape and size of the American budget for the coming fiscal year is known, and until the lines of authority in the U. S. are fixed.

VISITING FARMERS

Eighty-eight young Americans have returned to their homes after participating in the International Farm Youth Exchange program sponsored by the National 4-H Club Foundation in cooperation with the Departments of State and Agriculture. For five months they lived and worked with host families in 24 countries. At the same time young people from these countries visited and worked on American farms.

The Americans who were sent abroad returned to their homes with a keen sympathy for the problems which beset their fellow farmers in far off places. The visitors to this country took home a high regard for the hospitable, hard-working American farmers with whom they spent their visits.

The governments of the world can do much to foster good-will. Diplomats are

WISDOM ABOUT KOREA

Senator Styles Bridges, addressing himself to the Korean question in the "American Mercury," profoundly remarks:

"In our Republic one man is said to be as good as another. But it doesn't follow that one man is as wise as another; and what is needed now is wisdom. . . ."

It is so often said that every man is entitled to his opinion. Yet, what is his opinion worth when neither experience, scholarship nor wisdom supports it? The Korean War, costly in American life, is an example of the danger to a nation of swift action guided not by carefully prepared knowledge and applied wisdom, but by an emotional reflex to an immediate challenge. As long as our government was directed in its Far Eastern policies by Owen Lattimore, John P. Davies, Jr., Philip Jessup and similar persons prejudiced at the time of crisis in favor of Soviet Russia, we had to go wrong.

Senator Bridges wisely raises the question as to the fact of the war. It is a war. It is not a police action. It is an American war, not a United Nations disciplinary effort. He says of it: "The Third World War is not in the future; we are in it now; we were in it even before the Second World War ended. The Third World War is the oldest of all wars; it's the determination of totalitarian conspiracy to destroy the revolutionary idea of free government and individual independence."

This is a correctly stated position from which there can be no factual retreat. And no one, Republican or Democrat, Truman, Eisenhower or Stevenson, has presented a program for ending this war. Perhaps there can be no end to it in the foreseeable future. Do we have the courage to face that fact? Do we have the fortitude to recognize that historical errors have been made by our politicians at Teheran, Yalta and Potsdam, they cannot be corrected by wishful thinking and by Pollyannish platitudes?

How complicated our relations to the enemy are is evidenced by the fact that we have spent 16 months talking about how a truce might be achieved and during that prolonged period no truce has been approached and Americans have continued to be killed.

One of our major difficulties is that for most Americans Asia is a forbidden continent about which they know nothing. Presidents Roosevelt and Truman, Secretaries of State Hull, Byrnes, Stettinius, Marshall and Acheson were ignorant concerning Asia. The only one of these men who had spent any time on that continent was General George Marshall first with the Fifteenth Infantry in Tientsin and then as Mr. Roosevelt's Ambassador to China. The only experts consulted from 1937 to 1952 were leftists, out of the Institute of Pacific Relations. Older China experts were ignored because their well-prepared experience conflicted with the opinions of those who, without knowledge, reached conclusions which have proved to be wrong.

"China, the heart of Asia, was lost to the enemy. Whether it was lost by Roosevelt's listening to Hiss at Yalta; by Chiang's alleged intransigence; by Stilwell's petulance; by Marshall's somnolence; or by the chicanery and perhaps treachery of the Institute of Pacific Relations—all these we have debated with a good deal of light as well as heat. The fact now is that the heart of Asia was lost, and virtually every American, except those who support the cause of Communism, now agrees with General MacArthur that this was a tragedy for which we shall be paying for generations. . . ."

General Eisenhower has no vested interests in the mistakes made in Asia. He had no part of them. He was not in the picture for the short period, November 10, 1945-1948, when he was Chief of Staff, no Asiatic matter came before him. Should John Foster Dulles be chosen Secretary of State, our country will have a knowledgeable man of high character and an intimate relationship with the East of Asia. It would be a good appointment from this standpoint, the China problem will remain with the United States throughout this administration.

And what would be essential then would be to recognize the fact of war and to form firmer and tighter relations with our allies, South Korea, Formosa, Japan, the Philippines. War requires sharp and positive thinking if loss of life is to be minimized. We have not had that concerning Asia, for two decades; it is essential now.

CORONARY THROMBOSIS

The death rate from coronary thrombosis (heart stroke) among physicians is higher than that of the general public of the same ages. This fact may cause many to think that attacks of coronary thrombosis are usually fatal, yet this is not true.

An opportunity to learn the truth about physicians and coronary thrombosis is provided by the report of the doctors who were members of the Medical Society, Annuity and Life Assurance Society Limited of Great Britain, aged 35 to 64, who held "immediate," noncancelable sickness insurance, providing benefit, on receipt of medical certificate, for periods of incapacity to work which last seven days or more.

The society also has knowledge of all deaths in its membership even when these occur after an illness of less than seven days.

What has this medical insurance company learned about its members and coronary thrombosis?

The prognosis (probable outcome of an illness) as far as life is concerned shows that about 30 per cent of all these men aged 40 to 64, experiencing first attacks, died in the first six days of the first attack—sudden deaths; another 8 per cent died in the remainder of the first month, making 38 per cent in all in the first month.

After this first month, the picture is quite different, with 2 per cent dying in the remainder of the first year, and an average of about 2 per cent dying annually in the next six years.

Of the men who survived their first attack of coronary thrombosis, about half had no further absence from their work because of heart disease (or its complications) that lasted as much as a week during the next six years. "The average time lost from work for coronary heart disease during the next six years by men who survived their first attack was about four weeks per man per year."

I have written before of a superintendent of a large military hospital, who, on being introduced to a fellow practitioner patient (admitted for his first attack of coronary thrombosis) told him not to worry. "I've had six attacks. I go to bed for a month and then I'm up and about my hospital work until the next attack occurs."

From this report from Great Britain, it appears that when the patient survives the first attack, his life chances are almost as good as those of the general population who have not had attacks of coronary thrombosis.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON

Washington—Last Sunday, the day the hydrogen-bomb explosion was announced, I happened to go to church. I say "happened" because a television program and a radio broadcast both coming on a Sunday ordinarily make it hard for me to go to church.

But the telecast is being switched to Wednesday, so I surprised Mrs. P. by taking her to church. Where I listened to Rev. John R. Anschutz preach a sermon on prayer. Knowing that the hydrogen-bomb announcement was due to be made later that day or the next morning, I did quite a bit of thinking about prayer, and the fact that maybe if we had relied more on prayer and the things that go with prayer, we wouldn't be in the predicament of building bomb-shelters and going underground for fear of explosions that could burn up our civilization.

Over at the Alexandria, Va., church where George Washington used to worship, Rev. O. V. T. Chamberlain chose as his closing hymn:

"The Day Thou Gavest, Lord, Is Ended."

That expressed some thoughts of mine too.

For the day the Lord gave us could very well be ended if we and the Russians ever get to trading hydrogen-bomb blows across the Arctic.

Bombs vs. Ideas

On the other hand, I also figured that bombs never killed an idea, and our greatest natural resource is not plutonium or tritium, but our moral and spiritual strength.

Religion and communism cannot survive together. But one trouble is that religion has got to mean more than a refuge from ruthless force. It must be a pattern for life, not a ritual for one hour on Sunday.

Another trouble is that men of all faiths and of little faith have been seeking ideas to defeat communism, when right around the corner the best idea of all is being neglected—the Sermon on the Mount.

Mount, given us 2,000 years ago as a daily guide for living with each other.

The trouble, of course, is to get that daily guide adopted not only here, but also behind an Iron Curtain where religion is barred and where we can't even mail a package.

I have been harping for so long that I guess people are tired of hearing me, about the fact that there will always be danger of war—no matter how many H-bombs we build or how many men we draft—as long as we can't mingle with them in a free press, free radio, free church, free books and free contact with the outside world.

As long as 12 men in the Kremlin can declare war with no congress, no church, no press, or power of public opinion to put on the brakes, there will always be danger of war and the day Thou gavest, Lord, may be ended.

Breaking Iron Curtain

I have tried in what feeble ways I could to show that the iron curtain was not as impenetrable as it's supposed to be. I once traveled along it from Turkey to Berlin showing up its loopholes, and in cooperation with the Crusade for Freedom I helped float 1,000,000 leaflets via balloons into Czechoslovakia and Poland.

These at best were puny efforts, though they showed, from the reaction on the other side of the iron curtain, how eagerly its people welcome contact with us.

Today, however, we have two opportunities which need not be puny. First we have a new and powerful hydrogen bomb; thereby giving us tremendous bargaining power to break down the artificial barriers preventing peace.

Second, we have a new President. He is a man of great prestige, known throughout the world and in Russia. And he has what Franklin Roosevelt had, a flair for dramatics, the ability to win people to his cause by imagination. Whether you agree with him politically or not, Eisenhower is and can be an international salesman. And that's what's needed to St. Peter's Church.

Mr. Paul A. Thomas, of North street, died.

Today in Washington

Announcement of His Three Appointments Reveals Ike Determined on Efficiency, Ability

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Washington, Nov. 21—Orderly minds and efficient operating men can give President-elect Eisenhower a great cabinet. Already the announcement of the three posts of secretary of state, secretary of defense, and secretary of the interior reveal that Mr. Eisenhower is determined to make efficiency and ability rather than politics the prevailing rule.

For John Foster Dulles, as pointed out in these dispatches earlier in the week, is recognized the world over as an American statesman with exactly the right qualifications for secretary of state. And Charles E. Wilson, president of General Motors, is the very type of man long needed to head up the greatly expanded Department of Defense.

Just as the late President Roosevelt turned to the president of General Motors, William S. Knudsen, in 1941 to head up the Office of Defense Production, so Mr. Eisenhower also turned for a somewhat similar post to the chief executive of the largest business in the world today.

Mr. Wilson, of course, like Mr. Knudsen, will permanently sever all connections with his company and devote himself entirely to his government position. The President-elect has let it be known on several occasions that he wanted a man of wide business and production experience for the secretaryship of defense. He sees that vital job as not so much a military one, because the tasks of military strategy are vested in the joint chiefs of staff. He sees the office of secretary of defense today as involving contract negotiations and appropriations of billions of dollars. Business men have complained that millions of dollars are wasted because government officials do not understand the production operations of American industry.

So, in selecting Mr. Wilson, the President-elect has made a ten-strike. Mr. Wilson is a pioneer. He thinks in straight lines. He is primarily a civilian and will not become immersed in the rivalries of the armed services. Fortunately, he himself, has not been identified with any of them before. He will give the Department of Defense the business management it needs and this will make unnecessary such extra agencies as an Office of Defense Production if a war emergency develops. Mr. Wilson knows full well what can be done by mobilizing small businesses and he knows, also, what the irregular flow of contracts can mean, both from the defense standpoint and the national economy. Small business will get a better break than ever before. If ever there was a time to have a business man in charge of defense spending, it is today when the military appropriations alone run around 50 billions a year.

As for the Department of State, the announcement that Mr. Dulles will take charge means that worthwhile policies and procedures will be retained and used.

less or unwise policies will be discontinued by a man who has been inside the department and knows the score.

Most significant is the manner in which Mr. Dulles intends to approach his new duties. He wants to see all the administrative bureaus put in charge of competent men so he can devote himself entirely to policymaking. His appointment was favorably received in Washington by many elements including church circles. Mr. Dulles was for years president of the big Protestant organization then known as the Federal Council of Churches of Christ and he has a son studying to be a Catholic priest.

Abroad, there is a mixed reaction to the Dulles appointment. In left-wing Britain and in Russia he has been pictured as a kind of "warmonger." But the British people have been so much misled in recent months concerning American affairs by inaccurate if not deliberately distorted impressions about Republican leaders that it may take a little while for them to awaken to the truth, which is that John Foster Dulles will probably be found much more direct and forthright and hence more constructive than the vacillating type of diplomat who arouses hopes abroad only to find them dashed to the ground by a realistic reversal by Congress back in Washington.

Congress likes Mr. Dulles—both Republicans and Democrats say of him that he is an American in every sense of the word and that he has not fallen victim to the sloppy thinking which is so often ready to yield American sovereignty at the slightest pressure from the "world government" school of thought.

Mr. Dulles is an international cooperationist who never forgets that American interests are most vital to America and that collective security doesn't mean American boys must do all the fighting in the world while American dollars flow abroad to bolster the budgets of foreign governments. He is a realist about both Europe and Asia, and he's the kind of secretary of state the American people really wanted General Eisenhower to pick. And he did.

The selection of Governor McKay of Oregon to be secretary of the interior—a man familiar with the real interests of the west in reclamation and power projects—is also an application of the principle that General Eisenhower is trying to follow in fitting the right man to the right job.

Now if the President-elect will select Herbert Brownell as attorney general—and this seems likely—the second issue of the campaign namely how to conduct an efficient orderly cleanup of Communist influence inside our government, will also be taken care of in accordance with the wishes of the majority of the American electorate.

AS PEGLER SEES IT

By WESTBROOK PEGLER

For all the brass threats of our new attorney-general, James P. McGranery, to deport foreigners with no right to be with us, Aaron Smehoff, alias Allen Smiley, an underworld nuisance with a high social rating in the Hollywood riff-raff, will not be sent back to Canada. Canada refuses to take him back.

In view of the dirty work that the Roosevelt household perpetrated in the case of Earl Browder's Communist wife, Irene, so that she could step across the Canadian border and re-enter the United States, it is not surprising that someone in our State Department put in a "fix" with some crooked bureaucrat in the Canadian government. The Canadians share many of our traits, including vice as well as virtue, and the regime that has ruled us these 20 years, like the Victorian era, has left a worldwide impression.

The Canadian government hit upon an ambulance-chaser's technicality which would be a credit to our own Department of Justice or treasury, to prevent our deportation of Smehoff. Canada says he left his citizenship "lapse."

Smehoff is a criminal by trade with a number and record in California, which has been almost exclusively favored by his company for a quarter of a century, and a number and record in the FBI. An order of deportation was issued against him two years ago on the ground that he had come here illegally through Detroit in 1924. He rendered himself further "undesirable" by notorious swearing in an application for an officer's commission during the war and in similar paper-work. He has done time, state and federal, for robbery and jewelry.

Mr. McGranery is serving just enough time as attorney-general to qualify for his varsity letter in the last quarter of a gruesome stretch of American history. He was a New Deal congressman and federal judge but when he announced that he was going to work up a book on Charlie Chaplin to exclude him when he tries to come home, fairness called for a brief spell of patience. But I had worked on this Smehoff-Smiley job ever since I discovered that this friend of Sinatra, George Raft, Bugsy Siegel, Leo Durocher and other such trash, was here by fraud, so I thought I would just needle our new attorney-general. After two jobs, Mr. McGranery called up and explained that in the time left to him, and in view of the notorious facts of life in our State Department, we can't deport Smehoff until the Canadians are induced to change their mind.

This bum was born in some dump in Russia that nobody ever heard of in 1907, and his own mother took the family to Canada, being naturalized here, which process gave Aaron derivative Canadian citizenship. In 1924 Aaron came over to our side and hit for his spiritual home in Hollywood.

That State Department certainly is a cozy lodge. Here the Department of Justice has been tearing its shirt to send Smehoff back and all this time has been suppressing the fact that our good friends long ago told State that we are stuck with him.

Anyone with any knowledge of the way governments reciprocate knows that if we asked Canada to take Smehoff back as an act of friendship, Canada would. In a year or so he would line up with the Canadian underworld, which is bush-league, and land in prison for time enough to last him to the end.

Anyway, Mr. McGranery insists that he is doing his best and is running up such a love-story on Chaplin that his Republican successor will have to smoke a big hog of high-proof hop to dream up an excuse for letting him return.

But there are dark rumors that Ike is thinking of appointing Earl Warren, the New Deal Republican governor of California, to succeed McGranery and in that case we would be back where we were when we had Frank Murphy and Francis Biddle but a little more to the left.

So that is why we are stuck with Sinatra's friend, Allen Smiley, who was sitting with Bugsy Siegel when somebody blowed Siegel's head off, back there when Hank Greenspun, the notorious ex-convict crone of Drew Pearson's political struggle against Senator Pat McCarran, was an intimate member of the Siegel-Meyer-Lansky underworld mob, operating the notorious Flamingo in Las Vegas.

Martin Resigns As YMCA Director

John Henry Martin, who has resigned as principal of Kingston High School, submitted his resignation as a member of the board of directors of the YMCA during Tuesday's meeting, it was announced today.

The board, while accepting the resignation with regret, expressed its thanks to Martin for his loyal and continuous service as a director and also for his splendid cooperation with the youth program.

Martin's resignation as KHS principal was accepted this week by the local board of education. He plans to leave his local post at the close of the first semester in January. It has been reported that Martin has accepted a position in Manhasset, L. I.

Chester A. Baltz presided at the meeting following a cafeteria supper served by the Ladies' Auxiliary.

At the opening devotions the fact was mentioned that it was 10 years ago to date that General Secretary Burt Tandy attended his first meeting with the board. On that occasion, Nov., 1942, the Auxiliary also served a supper with most of the same workers as this year under the leadership of Mrs. George DuBois.

Schmid New Director
Al Schmid was welcomed as a new director attending his first meeting. Robert Thornton also attended his first meeting as the new boys and youth director.

Director Shufeldt reported a "quest" left the "Y" by former director B. C. VanIngen, who served many years. Proper resolutions were presented in memory of his years of work. One of his last services to the "Y" was the nominating committee for directors.

Boys' division chairman, Cliff Smith, reported the regular activities well underway and many new party activities being planned by Thornton. The committee is planning regular meetings to work with him.

Chet Dolson reported for the physical department. Some new demands have been made for additional programs, he said. To properly fit this in the physical committee will meet together with the executive committee after the staff studies the present schedule.

President C. A. Baltz will head the delegation to the Mid-Hudson Laymen's Conference Saturday afternoon. It will be held at Poughkeepsie "Y." Dr. Charles Noble will be the chief speaker at the dinner meeting. Warren Smith will head the physical group. Cliff Smith will head the boys program group from Kingston. Clarence Dunn will be chairman for the discussion section during the afternoon at which program and membership will be the topic. Marvin Millens served on the planning committee for the gathering. About 20 are expected to represent the Kingston association.

The financial report showed the need of increased income in the next few months to balance the accumulating expenses. The executive committee will review the expenses at a special meeting.

Those present were C. A. Baltz, Herbert DeKay, Chet Dolson, Clarence Dunn, Lloyd LeFever, John H. Martin, William O'Reilly, Clarence Rowland, Herman Schwenk, A. B. Shufeldt, Clifford Smith, Ted Young and Al Schmid.

To Conduct Rochester Symphony, Nov. 29

PAUL WHITE

Wherever in the world symphonic music is played, the name of Paul White is known and esteemed. He will conduct the noted Rochester Civic Orchestra, a 50-piece symphony, in a concert to be presented at the Kingston High School auditorium, at 8:30 p. m. on Saturday, Nov. 29.

Tickets for the concert may be obtained at O'Reilly's, the Kingston City Library, any member of the Board of Managers of the Children's Home and Mrs. Louis Keger, ticket chairman; Mrs. Richard Shults, Mrs. Alexander B. Shufeldt, Mrs. Larry Bogert, Mrs. Kenneth Davenport, and Mrs. Lloyd LeFever.

Composer of over a score of works, including symphonies, symphonic poems, overtures, suites and shorter works, Mr. White is perhaps best known for his Five Miniatures and Sea Chanty. The former, recorded by RCA Victor by the Boston Pops Orchestra under Arthur Fiedler, has been played by every major orchestra in the United States and has been performed only a little less frequently in Europe, South America and Asia. Sea Chanty, recorded by the Philadelphia Orchestra for Columbia Records, has become almost as well known since it was written in 1942 on commission by Samuel R. Rosenbaum, executive of the Philadelphia Orchestra Association, for performance by his wife, Edna Phillips, then solo harpist with that orchestra.

Wide though his fame as a composer is, his conducting is only a little less well known. He has been guest conductor of the Cincinnati Symphony, the Lewish Stadium Symphonies in New York city, the Boston Pops Orchestra, the Pittsburgh Symphony and the Rochester Philharmonic.

Besides conducting the Rochester Little Symphony, he is associate conductor of the Rochester Civic Orchestra and conductor of the Eastman School of Music Senior Symphony.

In addition to these public appearances as conductor, he plays as a member of the Kilbourn String Quartet, and since 1939 has been musical director of the Air Force Club where he has become known to thousands of Adirondack vacationists for his conducting of another elite symphonic ensemble of 15 players for a 10-week summer season.

His busy schedule includes the chairmanship of the orchestral department at Eastman School of Music, where he is also teacher of advanced conducting. Among his students who have gone on to leadership of large orchestras are Victor Allesandro, now conductor of the San Antonio Symphony and Richard Bales, conductor of the National Gallery Orchestra in Washington.

He has conducted the Rochester Civic Orchestra in national network broadcasts over NBC and CBS, and is guest conductor of the McCurdy Little Symphony of the Air, whose broadcasts have several times won national awards.

Eyes for an Eye

Dallas, Tex., Nov. 21 (AP)—Nathan Bullard, 40, pleaded guilty yesterday to a charge of maiming. Then District Judge Henry King gave him a two-year suspended sentence. Bullard admitted that on Jan. 20, he hurled a bottle at Walter Eugene Barkin, 12, when the boy persisted in looking on a card game. The bottle shattered and its fragments blinded the boy in one eye. Five months later, June 21, a provoked girl friend of Bullard's hurled lye water in his face. Bullard was permanently blinded and had to be helped onto the witness stand yesterday. Such eye-for-eye retribution, Assist. Dist. Atty. Ray L. Stokes told the judge ought to be enough punishment for Bullard. The judge agreed. Bullard's girl friend, Zelma Robinson, 47, is under indictment for his blinding.

Small Boy—Daddy is, but he got a head start.

OFFICE CAT—WED.

He decided to end it all. He bought a rope, went to his room, threw one end over the chandelier and was about to jump off the chair when a friend walked in.

Friend—What are you doing?

He—Bumping myself off.

Friend—But why the rope around your stomach?

He—When I put it around my neck it was choking me.

BUY-WORD
in the field of travel

WHEN was the last time you priced the new cars?

When was the last time you matched feature against feature, size against size, horsepower against horsepower—and discovered for yourself which car really tops the value parade?

We'll tell you this—

If you put any Buick — SPECIAL, SUPER or ROADMASTER — against other cars of comparable cost, you'll find it the buy-word in the automobile market today.

Not alone on room, and power, and ride—and equipment included in the list price.

But also—and this is where your senses must be judge — in the thrill per dollar you get in a Buick.

There's no other way to know the lift in spirit you get when a great Fireball 8 Engine is pouring out its high-mileage power, when Dynaflo Drive* is at its silky work, when a million dollars' worth of ride engineering is cradling your travel in ever-level comfort.

We'll tell you this, too—

If you can afford any new car you can afford a Buick. For Buick prices start way down where the so-called "low-priced three" really worry.

Drop in and let us show you the big-thrill buy called Buick.

Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice. *Standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Series.

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

Take Some Chances To Win Tourneys.

By OSWALD JACOBY
Written for NEA Service

Only a few of the West Coast bridge experts come East regularly to take part in the regular National Bridge Championships. By way of compensation, however, the West Coast runs its own championships in Los Angeles and San Francisco, thus providing the hundreds of experts in that region with first class tournament competition.

The hand shown today is taken from the recent "Bridge Week" held in Los Angeles. Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Kauder held the North-South hands and got themselves into an ambitious grand slam contract.

The Kauders are among the best players on the coast, and they knew perfectly well that they were out on a limb with their grand slam contract, but they needed an unusually good score and decided to take the risk.

It doesn't take great skill to overbid a hand and then go down, as all of us have found out at one time or another. In this case, Arnold Kauder justified his ambitious bidding by making the contract.

He won the first trick in dummy with the king of clubs and immediately finessed the eight of hearts. When this finesse held, Kauder breathed again and then ran every last one of his trumps, discarding low diamonds and low spades from the dummy.

When declarer continued by cashing dummy's top diamonds,

BABSON on BUSINESS

Babson Park, Mass., Nov. 21.—The sad feature of the election is that his landslide may have come from parents and young people who dreaded Korea. If so, may not this be a sign of fear or cowardice which may likewise show itself in other problems?

Certain states are now severely suffering from drouth. This was one factor which brought on the Hoover depression of the Thirties, following several bountiful years under President Coolidge. When Ike reads the 41st Chapter of Genesis his headache must become worse.

Ike realizes that wageworkers should receive their share of the profits—but they should do so by increasing production—not by striking. During the past 10 years labor leaders have usurped the powers of government. They will not give up this power without a struggle. Yet, Ike will consider it his duty to curb this dangerous situation. We must back Ike up in his efforts.

Ike knows that to keep Europe and Japan from going Communist we must accept their goods graciously. To raise tariffs would be suicidal, he believes. Yet, U. S. manufacturers will make a concerted drive upon him for higher tariffs.

Fear of World War 3 has caused a great expansion of manufacturing space. This has greatly stimulated the building trades—lumber, steel and the other 27 industries which go into building. Barring World War 3, this expansion is ending. Accompanying unemployment appears inevitable.

Last year five times as many houses were built as during a year 10 years ago. This would be encouraging if these houses were paid for—but they were built on a shoestring. When unemployment comes a million of these houses could be vacated and come back on the market. This could ruin the market for houses, as well as throw millions of carpenters, bricklayers, painters and others out of work.

Ike has promised to stop inflation and he won millions of votes thereby. But can inflation be stopped without deflation? Does anybody want deflation? Solving this problem will be a real headache, but here again we must stand behind our new President.

Unfortunately, a steadily declining stock market, commodity market and real estate market will give millions of people—as well as Ike—a headache. Most bankers believe that such declining markets will come in 1953 and/or 1954. However, these bankers may be wrong.

For real progress Ike must have a friendly Congress. He will start with one as did Herbert Hoover in 1928. But too many Congressmen think only of themselves, rather than the nation's good. Ike could lose the congressional elections in 1954 unless we fight for him from now on. His election will not be definite until November, 1954.

Ike will try to clean house and increase efficiency at Washington; but every government employee has many congressional friends who will beg Ike to retain these friends—especially if general unemployment is increasing. Taxes cannot be decreased without mass discharges of government employees. This will cause unemployment. President Hoover tried it. It started his collapse and the depression which followed.

Ike well says that America's greatest need is for spiritual awakening; but thus far in the past only "hard times" have brought such about. This, however, may not be necessary if we all work for the new administration and willingly put the good of the nation ahead of our own selfish wishes.

Fashion Conscious Next First Lady Expected To Give Lift to Industry; Business Popping

By DOROTHY ROE
AP Women's Editor

Mamie Eisenhower is expected to give a lift to the fashion industry.

Business is popping down in the caverns of New York's Seventh avenue this week, as buyers by the thousands crowd into showrooms to order next spring's fashions; a new spirit of optimism is apparent among the manufacturers, and first reports show a solid increase in orders for spring merchandise throughout the country.

Rosy Future Predicted
Women's wear daily, the "Buyer's Bible," predicts a rosy future for the fashion business as the result of "a first lady who also is a real influence in the fashion world."

Certain it is that the next first lady knows her frocks and hats, and uses her own good taste in selecting them. Her wardrobe is made up of both French and American models, and she is as likely to buy a dress she likes for $50 as she is to order an exclusive custom-made one. What pleases the moguls of the nation's $11 billion fashion industry is that Mrs. Eisenhower can be counted on to wear either with an air.

Well-Hung Together
The millions who cheered Mamie during the campaign tour noted that she always was well groomed, in simple little suits or dresses of good lines and flattering cut, that her hats were right and her gloves spotless, that she managed to achieve that ideal state of looking "well-hung together."

At tonight's gala fan ball, at the Plaza Hotel, New York society will get a close-up view of the next first lady, honorary chairman, whose gown for the event may be expected to set the trend for the season's formal wear.

Likes Feminine Lines
For everyday wear Mrs. Eisenhower has a preference for feminine lines, full skirts, fitted bodices and flattering necklines. She is a petite size 12, looks younger than her 56 years, and has been described as "that rare phenomenon, a grandmother who looks wonderful in a strapless dress."

One New York designer, from whose line Mrs. Eisenhower selected a number of outfits at the start of the campaign, describes her as "a designer's dream, who has a divine figure, loves clothes and knows how to wear them."

Favors Soft Blue
Mamie's favorite color is a soft blue that matches her eyes, a fact that is expected to start some promotional interest in this hue for spring.

The millinery industry is overjoyed to find that Mrs. Eisenhower has a passion for hats. She took at least 50 with her on the campaign tour, and has been known to spot a hat in a shop window and decide that she simply can't live without it.

The next first lady is not, however, a spendthrift. She is a canny shopper, and gets her money's worth. She is said to have decided that Paris clothes were too expensive for a whole wardrobe, and that she could find things just as flattering and far less costly back in the good old U. S. A.

Honored on 60th Wedding Anniversary

MR. AND MRS. MERRITT SOPER

Over 150 neighbors, relatives and friends attended a reception Sunday afternoon in Union Center to honor Mr. and Mrs. Merritt Soper who celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary. The reception was given by the Ladies' Aid Society of the Union Center Community Church, in the church parlor. A musical program was presented by the church choir.

Mr. and Mrs. Soper, for many years residents of Union Center, were married on November 16, 1892, at Bloomington by the late Rev. Joseph Mollett. Mrs. Soper is the former Miss Eliza Jane Slater, born in the town of Rosendale in 1875. Mr. Soper was born in Bristol in 1873. Three of the couple's four children are living and reside in Union Center. They also have eight grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren. The children are Mrs. Joseph Halstein, and Chester and Everett Soper.

A three-tiered wedding cake, gold candles in candelabra, and gold-colored chrysanthemums were used to decorate the tea table.

NOT WRONG IF YOU NEED IT

A reader tells me: "Whenever I go to visit friends, after leaving my coat in the bedroom, I have a habit of taking my pocketbook with me. The reason I do this is because I have my cigarettes in my bag and should I care to smoke during the evening, I have them with me. I have been told that it is a very rude thing to do and suggests that I do not trust the people in the house. Will you please give me your opinion?"

As you evidently need it, you quite properly take it with you. In other words, carry whatever you are likely to need.

Signing Christmas Cards

Dear Mrs. Post: Please let me know the proper way to sign my Christmas cards. I live in a large apartment house and every year I receive many cards from other tenants and I send them cards in return. I am a widow and have always signed my cards Mrs. John Smith, but I notice that many of the cards sent me are signed, Mary Brown, Helen Greene, etc. and I would like to know if my signature is correct. None of these people call me by first name.

Answer: Your correct signature is "Mary Smith." If they won't know who "Mary" is, you can write "Mrs. John" beneath for information. But to sign your name "Mrs. John Smith" (except when added in parenthesis beneath your signature "Mary Smith") is bad taste.

Impulse of Consideration

Dear Mrs. Post: In this morning's mail I received a birth announcement with the words, "No Gift" written in the corner. I have never seen this before and would like to know if this is considered in good taste?

Answer: Personally, I have not seen it either, but its inclusion was undoubtedly thoughtful. As a matter of fact, it doesn't prevent you from sending a gift should you really want to. On the other hand, it does prevent your feeling obliged to do so.

Do you know your ABC's in manners? Mrs. Post has written leaflet E-18, "An Etiquette Test," which includes most frequently asked questions regarding manners. Mrs. Post is sorry she cannot answer personal mail. To obtain a copy, send 10 cents in coin to her, c/o The Kingston Daily Freeman, P. O. Box 99, Station G, New York 19, N. Y.

Mrs. Hutton Leads Discussion of Human Rights at Meeting

A discussion on Human Rights was led by Mrs. George V. D. Hutton Wednesday morning at a regular meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service, at St. James Methodist Church.

As a reference for her talk, Mrs. Hutton used the book, "These Rights We Hold," by Fred L. Brownlee. Discussing the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, worked out by the United Nations, she said, "We, as citizens must be alert, know the issues, be aware of what is going on, have a responsible outlook, be well informed, and consider what is best for all."

"In the United States many of these rights and freedoms seem to be taken for granted. For other lands, the ratification would be controversial and bring about radical changes," she concluded.

During the afternoon session, Mrs. Hutton described the Methodist homes and hospitals, which in many cases she informed her listeners, are supported by the Woman's Society of Christian Service.

"These homes, schools, social centers and hospitals, said Mrs. Culver, 'are scattered throughout the United States and in many foreign lands where they are working in cooperation with church, health services, and educational institutions. The homes care for children from broken homes, for those emotionally disturbed, or for those presenting some special problem.'"

Other projects sponsored by the Methodist Church were also enumerated.

The people of the United States own about three-quarters of the world's life insurance.

Additional classes will be included in the prize list for the 1953 American Horse Shows Association licensed show, to be sponsored by the Woodstock Riding Club on Sunday, June 28, 1953. The announcement concerning the show date and classes was made by Mrs. George M. Hard, show chairman, at a meeting of the club Thursday evening, in the Dutch Reformed Church hall, Woodstock. Griffin Herrick, president, conducted the meeting.

To provide a well diversified show, the chairman proposed a similar number of classes in the several divisions to include, Jumper, Hunter, Western, Gaited Saddle horse, and equitation; with championship awards in each division. A tentative outline of classes and awards was presented, as well as a list of proposed committees.

Cash awards in eight open classes will total approximately $400. Other classes carry trophy awards. Ribbons will be awarded for all classes. Mrs. Hard will confer Tuesday in New York with Theodore Buell, executive secretary of the American Horse Shows Association, when the proposed prize list, judges, and other matters pertinent to the show will be discussed.

Building Approval Given
Of particular interest to the membership were building plans and estimated costs of construction submitted by Mr. Herrick, for the first wing of the club house which will be erected on the Ohayo Mountain 19-acre tract owned by the club. Approval was granted to the building committee, and it is expected that work on the project will get under way within the next two to three weeks.

Six new members were unanimously elected. They are: Malcolm Carrington, Lake Hill; Patricia Donohue, Palenville; Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Wassmer, Bearsville; Miss Vera Van Rijn, Woodstock; and John Roosa, Kingston.

Charles Ashley, educational committee chairman, offered a program to be presented in the early spring, which will include special instruction and discussion of rules governing a recognized show. All interested persons will be invited to participate.

The annual Christmas party and pot-luck supper is scheduled for Thursday, Dec. 18, in the Dutch Reformed Church hall.

Brooklyn Driver Hurt Avoiding Dog

Samuel Katz, 41, of Brooklyn suffered multiple rib fractures and laceration over his left eye when the automobile he was driving went down a five-foot embankment off Route 9W near Milton about 3:10 p. m., Thursday, state police reported.

Katz was taken to St. Francis Hospital in Poughkeepsie for treatment. He told troopers the car went off the east side of the highway when he swerved to avoid hitting a dog that ran out on the highway.

The accident occurred about opposite the GLE building in Milton, troopers said. The automobile was badly damaged, according to the report.

Two Gunmen Hold Up Finance Company

New York, Nov. 21 (AP)—The Personal Finance Company office at 478 East Tremont avenue, the Bronx, was held up late yesterday by two gunmen who applied for a $300 loan, then bound two employees with adhesive tape before fleeing with about $600 in cash.

The office manager, Frank Burney, 38, of 27 Pelton street, Yonkers, and his assistant, Harry Kamioner, 28, of 964 East 180th street, the Bronx, freed themselves in a few minutes and called police.

Neither of the employees suspected anything wrong when one of the bandits filled out an application for the loan.

Kamioner said a co-maker was needed. The supposed client, remarking "that can be arranged," left the office with a promise he would be right back. When he returned, he was accompanied by another man and each flourished a revolver.

The gunmen ushered the manager and his assistant into an interview room in the second-floor main office.

"Go ahead and take it (the money)," police quoted Burney as saying.

"Shut up," snarled one bandit, who then left his companion to guard the employees and proceeded to empty a cash box in the main office.

After stuffing the money in their pockets, the two gunmen produced rolls of adhesive tape and bound their victims' mouths, hands and legs.

Would Get $25,000

Syracuse, N. Y., Nov. 21 (AP)—Alton J. Parker, who police say is alive today because a patrolman shot him, wants $25,000 from the city for his wound. Patrolman William J. Higgins, Jr., shot the 24-year-old East Syracusean in the shoulder last May. Higgins said it was the only way he could have prevented Parker from climbing over a ledge on top of a three-story building downtown. Police said Parker was about to jump. Yesterday Parker filed a $25,000 suit against the city. A city attorney said Parker claimed the policeman's action was illegal, unjustified and reckless. After his release from the hospital where he had been treated, Parker was booked on a disorderly conduct charge. The charge was dismissed.

or two matters, but they have asked me to delay any action until they have held all hearings."

Another aftermath of the commission hearings on alleged underworld-political-judicial teamwork in the city was Internal Revenue Bureau action on former State Supreme Court Justice Aaron J. Levy.

A bureau spokesman announced last night in Washington that Levy's tax affairs would be probed. There was hearing testimony on Wednesday that Levy spent $400,000 during a period when his court income was less than $200,000. Witnesses also stated that Levy, a court referee since he retired from the bench last year, handled stock investments under the names of at least two other persons.

In another post-commission hearing move, Tammany Hall leader Carmine G. De Sapio issued a statement yesterday intended to clear up evidence "concerning his draft deferment during World War 2."

In secret testimony before the commission, De Sapio testified that he was unemployed from 1939 to 1946 but that in 1944 he was classified as 2-A because of "essential non-defense employment."

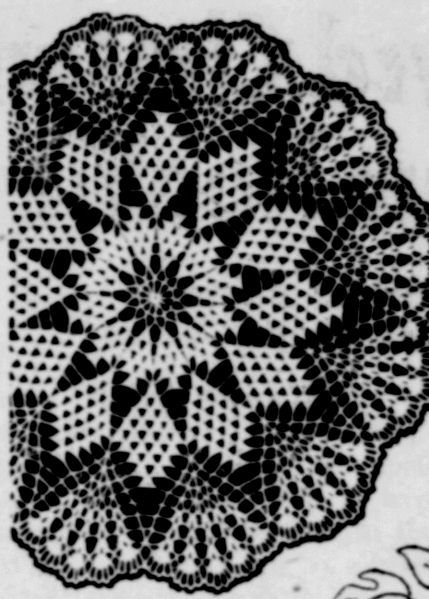

The head of the Manhattan Democratic organization said he told the commission he was unemployed during that period to indicate he was not publicly employed but worked for his parents in their real estate business.

De Sapio was 35 at the time of the deferment, and was a Tammany district leader. "Any representation that I was unemployed at the time is false," De Sapio said.

"At no time did I request nor did any one acting on my behalf request that I be reclassified."

Full records from the Selective Service director have been sent to the commission for incorporation into the official hearing record, De Sapio said.

Charge Reduced

Wilson Could . . .

from commercial sales, it has been doing business in the multi-millions since the start of the Korean War. But the Defense Department spending budget runs about 60 billion dollars a year.

Lovett and Wilson know each other, having met in business meetings during World War 2 and since. It is a social and business acquaintance, not a first-name friendship.

Immediately upon hearing of Wilson's appointment yesterday, Lovett wired his congratulations and the offer of full cooperation of his office to bring about the transition of administrations in the Defense Department. Up until this morning, the Defense Department had no word whether Wilson would want to come to Washington to sit in for the remaining weeks with Lovett and his aides, as Lovett has recommended.

There seemed no legal reasons why this couldn't be done. When asked about giving Wilson access to secret information before he was sworn into office, a Defense Department expert pointed out that Wilson probably already has been "cleared" for much classified information. He noted that the large and varied number of defense contracts held by Wilson's company presumably require that he have access to substantial classified information.

Wilson, in a news conference at Detroit yesterday, said he never had had any political ambitions and that he was sure this appointment was "in no sense a political appointment."

Sues for Son's Death

New York, Nov. 21 (AP)—Max Schuster yesterday filed in Brooklyn Supreme Court a suit against the city for $1,025,000 in the death of his son, Arnold L. Schuster, young pants salesman slain after he led police to capture bank robber Willie Sutton. The city rejected a $500,000 damage claim made by the father last June, in that action he charged that his son's death was due to the "negligence, recklessness and carelessness of the city." In yesterday's suit he charged the city failed to provide proper protection for his son after he had received threats.

Study of Lighting Praised by Mayor

Mayor Oscar V. Newkirk said today that the trip he made to Lynn, Mass., Wednesday with Commissioner Kenneth Hyatt and Max Oppenheimer, assistant public works superintendent, was "time well spent."

The local officials were guests of the General Electric Co., for an inspection tour of the latest in street lighting at Lynn on Wednesday and Thursday. The mayor said they saw one street on which fluorescent lights were used as an experiment and others were improved mercury vapor lights were used. All on the tour, he said gained new knowledge of street lighting.

Five Brothers Face $175,000 Tax Count

New York, Nov. 21 (AP)—Five brothers will be arraigned Dec. 1 in Federal Court on an indictment charging them and their corporation with tax evasions totaling nearly $175,000.

U. S. Attorney Myles J. Lane filed the indictment yesterday which named Irving Federbush, of 54 Old Pond road, Great Neck, and four of his brothers.

The first of the four counts in the indictment charges the brothers and their company—the Federbush Company, Inc., manufacturers of ring binders—with wilfully attempting to evade payments of a large part of the corporation taxes due for the fiscal year 1946. Irving Federbush is charged in one count with attempting to evade part of the income tax owed by him and his wife for 1946 by filing a fraudulent joint income tax return in which he reported a net income of $35,899.84 and tax of $14,601.40. Lane said that their joint income for that year actually was $52,023.72 and the tax should have been $24,467.42.

Each count of the indictment carries a penalty of $10,000 fine and a five-year jail sentence, Lane said.

Former Almost Unanimous Choice

By JACK HAND
New York, Nov. 21 (AP)—Joe Black of Brooklyn, and Harry Byrd of the Philadelphia A's, a pair of fine pitchers, were named Rookies of the Year today by the Baseball Writers Association of America.

Black was an overwhelming choice in the National League with 19 votes from the 24-man committee that also placed him third in the Most Valuable Player balloting.

Byrd, a late blooming hot shot, nosed out two catchers, Clint Courtney of the St. Louis Browns and Sam White of the Boston Red Sox in a three-man race. Byrd got nine votes, Courtney eight and White seven.

The feats of Black are well known to all because his relief work was largely responsible for the Dodgers pennant. An also-ran in spring training, Black appeared in only six games up to June 1. Then he started to work.

At stretches, Manager Charley Dressen had the Negro ace working every day. He wound up with 56 games, a 15-4 won and lost record and a low earned run average of 2.15. That earned run mark was best in the league but it won't be recognized because he did not pitch 10 complete games or work at least 154 innings. He started only two games, one the last Saturday of the season as a tune-up for the World Series opener.

Wilhelm Second

Hoyt Wilhelm, appearing in 71 games on relief for the New York Giants, was second to Black with three votes. Wilhelm had a 15-3 record and his 2.43 earned run mark won the title. He didn't start once but he did work 159 innings, five over the minimum.

Dick Groat, Pittsburgh's shortstop from Duke University, tied with Ed Mathews, Boston's third baseman, with one vote each.

The 1951 winners were Willie Mays of the Giants, now in service and Gil McDougald of the New York Yankees.

Byrd made the big jump from Savannah of the South Atlantic League to the majors with great success. He finished with a 15-15 record, coming on strong in the late stages of the season. Thus the A's, with Byrd and Bobby Shantz, the most valuable player, cornered season honors in the American League.

The 27-year-old right-hander from Darlington, S. C., pitched 15 complete games including three shutouts. On Sept. 7 he blanked the pennant-bound Yankees with one hit. During the month of September he lost 1-0 games to both New York and Cleveland. Still he didn't get his first starting chance until May 14.

Eastern Gridders Bid for All-America

New York, Nov. 21 (AP)—The east is making its strongest bid for All America honors with an unusual collection of standout ends.

Double duty flankers—men who can both catch a pass and stop an enemy running sweep—again were given top attention this week in the rundown of talent by the eastern board of consultants for the All America team.

Leading the parade were Frank McPhee, towering 203-pound Princeton senior, and Ed Woodsum, six-one, 180-pounder, acclaimed by Yale as the Elis' greatest end since Larry Kelley.

Also bidding for All-America recognition are Ed Bell of Pennsylvania, Jesse Arnette of Penn State, Owen Coogan of Holy Cross and Joe Szombathy of Syracuse.

Little Mo and Partner Capture Aussie Doubles

Sydney, Australia, Nov. 21 (AP)—Maureen Connolly and Julie Sampson, two American girls from California, cleaned up in the women's competition of the New South Wales Tennis championship today.

Maureen, known as "Little Mo" the U. S. champion from San Diego, Miss Sampson from San Marino, teamed to win the doubles title and made it an All-American final in the singles by taking their semi-final matches.

The American girls won the doubles by whipping the No. 1 and No. 2 ranking Australian women, Mary Hawton and Beryl Penrose, 4-6, 6-2, 6-2.

In the singles Miss Connolly beat Miss Penrose, 6-4, 6-4, and Miss Sampson defeated Miss Hawton, 6-2, 6-2.

Waterville, Me.—Claude Fortin, 140, Montreal, outpointed Willy Mays, 135, Boston, 8.

New York (Sunnyside Garden)—Carmine Fiore, 145, Brooklyn, stopped Jackie O'Brien, 146, Meriden, Conn., 7.

National League Rookie of the Year

Joe Black, Brooklyn Dodgers pitcher chosen National League Rookie of the Year by Baseball Writers Association of America, bats it out with his wife, Doris, in their Brooklyn, N. Y., home. Black, a relief pitcher who started only two games during the regular season, was the workhorse of the Dodgers squad with appearances in 56 games. His 15-4 record and stellar relief work was the prime factor in Brooklyn's winning the pennant.

Around the Tenpin Wheels: That big $2,000 match between Miron Lumber and Bill Guldern's All Stars, a Catskill-Albany-Cohoes combine, is being held up while the Lumberjacks try to clear some Saturday night dates in the Hudson Valley Bowling League.

This is not an easy task, since many teams are rightfully reluctant to change a bowling night for which they have set everything else aside.

The delay, while Miron's were making an honest effort to persuade reticent captains to make the changes, apparently has been misinterpreted in some quarters.

Bob Chalmers, the Albany bowling writer, through his information source (Guldern) observed recently that: "Those Kingston hotshots apparently are now not so keen to tangle with the Albany team lined up by Bill Guldern."

Since Chalmers has been fed inaccurate information his article reflects against the integrity of Miron's acceptance of the challenge, and, with Bill Guldern's permission, it is in order that the events leading up to the challenge be reviewed.

Among other items it must be remembered:

1. The challenge was instituted by Guldern, who "wanted a little action." The sum, $2,000, hardly comes under the heading of "little action."

2. When the match was first proposed, the upstaters inserted a "joker" clause in the proposed arrangements. They suggested a nine-game match, with three games at the Bowldrome, three at Catskill and three at Schade's Academy in Albany.

Examine that proposal and you find that the Lumberjacks would have been forced to roll 3 games at home, 6 on foreign lanes. They didn't bite for that, so a revision of plans was necessary.

Guldern defended the proposal, claiming that Catskill was a neutral alley. However, he neglected to point out that Bill Barrett, Morris Cramer, the Cohoes hotshot, and Guldern himself know alleys 7 and 8 at the Bowldrome as well as the Kingston keggers having rolled sensational scores on them. They have often rolled in Catskill. The Lumberjacks, meanwhile, with the possible exception of Johnny Ferraro four years ago, have never seen the inside of Schade's where Joey Schmidt, Cramer, Albert and Barrett, four of the All Stars, average around 200 in the capital district classic. Who was trying to kid whom?

3. When the nine-game arrangement was scrapped, Miron's said they were willing to take their chances on a six-game home and home series. That's sudden death for $2,000, to be sure, but they didn't hedge.

Guldern's keggers immediately launched a series of delaying actions. They insisted six games were not a genuine test with so much money at stake. They agreed to scrap the alley plan but held out for a four-game series at each alley—Schade's in Albany and the Bowldrome.

Pointing out that 4-game matches are not used even in the national match championships, Captain Charlie Manfro of the Lumberjacks insisted on the traditional three-game set.

"If that isn't enough," Manfro said, "we'll bowl them twice in Kingston and twice in Albany. Under no circumstances will we roll more than three games at one time. It makes the series too long and puts the spectators to sleep."

The 12-game plan has finally been accepted by both sides and the match will be rolled on that basis.

Regardless of what you may have read elsewhere those are the facts, straight from the horse's mouth. The match will be rolled as soon as clearance of Saturday night dates have been received.

And it is well to remember that Guldern's team not only issued the challenge, but insisted on Saturday night bowling, the night regularly used by the Hudson Valley League.

Griffith Blasts Yankee Hopes for Yost; Hank Sauer Best Against Leaders

New York, Nov. 21 (AP)—Clark Griffith, owner of the Washington Senators, celebrated his 83rd birthday blasting the New York Yankees for reportedly expressing a desire to acquire third baseman Eddie Yost of the Nats.

"They ought to stop that loose talk," bristled the veteran baseball executive. "They know very well that Yost is neither for sale or trade, yet are taking no steps to discourage the rumors that they are bidding for him. They would be the first to scream if I hinted we were after one of their good players."

One of the reasons why the writers voted Hank Sauer the Most Valuable Player in the National League the past season was that the Chicago Cub slugger hit 24 of his 37 home runs against teams in the first division.

He collected seven off New York pitchers, six off Brooklyn, six off Philadelphia and five off St. Louis. Sauer's chief victim was Larry Jansen, who yielded five homers.

Curt Simmons of the Phils and Herm Wehmeier of the Reds were slugged for three apiece.

Detroit's hopes to dig its way out of the American League basement next year received a body blow when Virgil (Double N) Hit Trucks, following a severe gall bladder attack, entered a hospital for observation. It is feared that the star right-handed pitcher of the Tigers may have to undergo surgery before the start of the 1953 season. Trucks won only five games last season, but they include two no-hitters, a one-hitter, a two-hitter and a six-hitter.

Did-You-Know-That Department—On Sept. 18, 1937, Bert Haas of the Brooklyn Dodgers came in as a pinch hitter and promptly doubled. The next day, he again went in as a pinch hitter and

Olson Kayoes Sala in Second

San Francisco, Nov. 21 (AP)—Clever Carl (Bobo) Olson of Honolulu was established today as the foremost contender for the world's middleweight title following his second round knockout, last night of hard-punching Lee Sala of Donora, Pa.

The 23-year-old ringman flattened the Pennsylvania boy for the full count with a right to the jaw. The knockout came in 2:12 of the second. Sala had hit the canvas earlier in the same round for a nine-count. He went down that time from a right to the side of the face followed by a whizzing left hook to the chin.

They weighed in at an identical 163 pounds. The fight was not televised.

Olson, listed No. 1 contender in New York, and Sala, No. 2, met for a possible title shot at Sugar Ray Robinson's championship.

Sugar Ray has left the ring temporarily to try his feet as a night club dancer. There have been some reports he would retire. If he decides to defend his title, Olson, with his win last night, would appear to have the first claim for a chance at it.

Olson already has had two cracks at Robinson's championship, suffering a knockout in the 12th round—the only time he has been knocked out. That fight took place, however, when he was somewhat of a green hand.

In San Francisco last March, Olson lost a close 15-round decision to Sugar Ray and the champ had to go all-out in the last two rounds to save his crown.

DeMarco on Spot Against Davis

New York, Nov. 21 (AP)—At the age of 23, it's pretty early to be making a comeback, but Paddy DeMarco must bounce back from two upset losses tonight against Henry Davis to regain his place in the lightweight division.

DeMarco, a rough laddie with the finesse of a billygoat, dropped his last two starts to Lil' Arthur King and Orlando Zulueta in two major surprises. He can't afford to lose another if he hopes to get a shot at lightweight champ Jimmy Carter.

The 10-round scrap at Madison Square Garden, slated for 10 p. m. (EST) will be carried on a national radio (ABC) and television (NBC) network.

Larry's Touch

Bowie, Md., Nov. 21 (AP)—Larry S. MacPhail's Midas touch was still with him today after the State Racing Commission granted his Bowie race track a four-day extension on its season to make up for an interrupted start. Although the track remained a mucky mess after another night of intermittent rain, the horses are scheduled to start racing over the reconditioned strip tomorrow.

New York, Nov. 21 (AP)—The 1952 collegiate football season reaches a fervent pitch tomorrow as top teams collide in "do or die" efforts and "traditional" affairs.

Most attention will revolve around those still in contention for a bid to the granddaddy of all post-season classics — the Rose Bowl. After Saturday the situation in both the Pacific Coast and Big Ten Conference races should be clarified considerably.

The eyes of the nation will be centered on Los Angeles' Memorial Coliseum where undefeated UCLA and Southern California clash in a game that will determine the western representative in the Rose Bowl.

More than 100,000 spectators will jam the Coliseum. The game will be televised nationally starting at 4:45 p. m. (EST).

UCLA, rated third in the AP poll, and Southern California, the country's fourth-ranking team, both boast 8-0 records. The game appears to be a toss-up with Southern California's reserve strength giving the Trojans a very slight edge.

One game will decide the Pacific Coast winner but confusion reigns so far as the Big Ten race is concerned. Three key contests are on the agenda.

Michigan and Wisconsin are tied for the Western Conference lead with identical 4-1 records. Purdue and Minnesota share second place at 3-1-1.

Michigan plays at Ohio State. Wisconsin is host to Minnesota and Purdue entertains Indiana — and anything can happen.

Michigan and Wisconsin, if they both win, could tie for the championship, and a conference committee would have to determine the bowl candidate. If either Michigan or Wisconsin loses, the survivor wins the trip to Pasadena.

Orange Bowl Waits

The Sugar Bowl and Cotton Bowl both have picked their choices for New Year's Day, but the Orange Bowl has not made any commitments. Alabama, Pittsburgh and Syracuse all are possibilities for the Miami junket and the three teams set action on Saturday.

Alabama will be facing a vengeful Maryland outfit which was knocked out of the ranks of the unbeaten last week by Mississippi, 21-14. If the Crimson Tide can halt the Terrapins, it could gain the bid.

Syracuse, which didn't exactly look impressive in last Saturday's 20-14 triumph over Colgate, shouldn't experience too much difficulty in bowling over Fordham. Pitt may have a little more trouble in disposing of Penn State when the teams meet in the 52nd renewal of their rivalry.

Michigan State, the too-ranking team in the nation, goes after its 24th straight victory against Marquette. Last season Marquette proved a stubborn foe before losing 20-14.

Georgia Tech, the No. 2 team, which opposes Mississippi in the Sugar Bowl, should maintain its unblemished slate against Florida State. Mississippi is idle.

Tennessee, second to Georgia Tech in the Southeastern Conference, can tie the Engineers provided they get past Kentucky. The Volunteers, seventh-ranking in the country, play Texas, No. 10, in the Cotton Bowl. Texas, the Southwestern Conference winner, isn't scheduled.

Oklahoma, the fifth best team in the ratings, can sew up the Big Seven title by beating Nebraska. Duke appears a cinch for top honors in the Southern Conference if the Blue Devils can turn back North Carolina.

Eleanor Singer's 596 Leads in Matinee; Harry Wilber High in Major With 631

Eleanor Singer, of the sweeping curve ball, and Harry Wilber, a 195-average performer in the Ferraro Major League captured individual honors in last night's bowling.

Mrs. Singer posted a rousing 596 in the Matinee Club, a 7-10 split in the 30th frame robbing her of a "600" triple. A couple of nights earlier she had reeled off 541 to lead the Friendship League.

House Damaged On Miller's Lane

The one-story frame house of Lester Elmendorf, Jr., Millers Lane extension was damaged by a fire which started in grease used to cook French fried potatoes yesterday.

Fire Chief Joseph L. Murphy said the fire was confined to the kitchen, which was badly damaged, but smoke and heat damaged most of the rest of the house. The grease caught fire, the chief said, when Mrs. Elmendorf left the stove to look at her baby in its crib. She went to the cellar to throw off the electrical circuits and called the fire department.

Chief Murphy said the fire was raging in the kitchen as firemen and equipment from Wiltwyck station arrived, and had been there three or four minutes later the whole house would have been destroyed.

The house is just beyond the city line on the lane and water was pumped from the hydrant at Dunman avenue and Miller's Lane.

Some plants have juvenile leaves of one shape, and adult leaves of another.

WOODSTOCK NEWS

By RICHARD E. THIBAUT, Jr.

Growth of Group Fighting Cancer Cited at Meeting

Woodstock, Nov. 21—At the annual meeting of the public health nursing committee Thursday afternoon at Deane's, the following officers were elected to serve for the coming year: Mrs. Victor Busch, president; Mrs. Anna Kamen, vice-president; Mrs. John Feeley, secretary; and Mrs. Clarence Snyder, treasurer. Serving on the nominating committee were Mrs. Charles King, Mrs. Warren Huty and Mrs. Melvin Leschen.

In conjunction with the committee's expanding health program in the community, Mrs. H. P. Van Wageningen, executive secretary of the American Cancer Society in Ulster county, spoke on the importance of education and volunteer assistance in the work of the Cancer Society. Mrs. Van Wageningen organized and was commander for 10 years of the Women's Field Army in New York state. Mrs. Van Wageningen outlined a brief history of the growth of the Cancer Society in New York state, highlighting it with several dramatic stories illustrating the urgent need for education in saving the lives of the victims of cancer.

Mrs. Van Wageningen explained the methods by which knowledge on the subject is imparted through films, lecture programs, leaflets and flyer pamphlets, including the vital "Seven Danger Signals." She deplored the use of films or books which tend to frighten the public and stated that "our program is wholesome, interesting and instructive."

Another department of the American Cancer Society, she said, is concerned with such services as supplies of dressings, transportation of patients to clinics, and the home visiting committee trained to relieve a family in distress, either various services or recreational programs. Urging more volunteers to undertake this work, Mrs. Van Wageningen asserted that cancer "is not a germ disease. You cannot catch cancer, and it is perfectly safe to go into homes to help cancer patients."

Mrs. Van Wageningen told members of the committee that in establishing a permanent division of the society in this village "you will become a part of the American Cancer Society in the county. You will not only help save lives, but will derive a great personal satisfaction from the work."

Volunteers Are Key

"This job needs to be done," she concluded, "and these volunteers are front line fighters in one of the greatest battles to be won today. With these fighters there is hope." She invited members to visit and make a tour of the Tumor Clinic in Kingston.

During the business meeting, annual reports were made by the various committee chairmen. Mrs. Snyder reported that the loan closet is in good shape. A letter was read from a summer resident whose problem was solved, following the injury of a member of the family, by the use of a hospital bed from the closet. In appreciation of the service, a check for $5 was forwarded to the committee. Another donation of $1 was also received.

Mrs. King reported that nine members had given volunteer transportation to patients of the dental clinic in June, July and August.

An extensive report on the work of the Visiting Housekeepers Committee was submitted by Mrs. Bev. Anderson and Mrs. Huty. Since the service was established last April 22 calls have been filed to date. Mrs. Anderson said that the service was hardly established when calls began to come in. "Both registrants and the public are very enthusiastic and grateful for our help and the project seems to have been very successful."

Reporting on the summer recreation program for girls, Mrs. George Laws said that the new field building being erected by the Woodstock Recreation Committee to which the committee is presenting $1,000 towards its construction, is now well under way.

Work Is Praised

Miss Anne Cassidy, public health nurse, summing up the year's work stated that the committee "should be proud of the work you have done." She again urged members to talk to parents, explaining to them the facilities of the monthly children's health clinics.

In reply to a request from Mrs. Paul Perlman, chairman of the committee arranging for Christmas gifts for foster children in the community, it was voted that the committee would provide for one child's Christmas. It was also voted to donate $5 for the Christmas program on the village green sponsored by the Woodstock Square Club.

In appreciation for her work during the past year, a gift was presented to Mrs. Laws, retiring president of the public health nursing committee.

To Ratify Contract Union Delegates

Delegates from the four unions comprising the Kingston Metal Trades Council will meet Monday night at the union office, 48 Main street, to ratify an agreement between the unions and three local shipyards.

The agreement, covering between 600 and 700 local shipyard workers, has already been approved by each of the four unions separately. Its terms, it was learned unofficially, will include a wage increase, holiday provisions and a welfare insurance fund.

Further details are expected to be contained in a joint statement to be issued by the shipyards and unions after final ratification.

It is understood that the contract will be subject to Wage Stabilization Board approval.

Three County Vets Due On West Coast Today

Three Ulster county veterans, including two from Kingston, are due to arrive today at Seattle, Wash., aboard the Navy Transport Marine Adder from the Far East.

According to the Associated Press, the ship is carrying 2,810 army enlisted men and officers. Kingston veterans aboard are Cpl. Vincent J. Carpio, Route 1, Box 308 and Cpl. Jesse H. Dunham, 2 Murphy street.

The other county GI is Cpl. Walter J. A. Roberts of RD 1, Walkkill.

Financial Writers Are Robbed of $139

New York, Nov. 21, (AP)—Two couples here for the New York Financial Writers Association meeting at the Hotel Astor were held up by a pair of armed youths in a room at the hotel last night, police reported.

The holdup pair got $139 from their victims. Police said Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hayes, of 43 Hillside Place, Rye, N. Y., had left their room and were visiting with Mr. and Mrs. William Horgan, of Overhill avenue, Yorktown Heights, N. Y., when the robbery occurred.

Horgan told police he had left the door of his room slightly ajar and the two robbers walked in and said: "Do you mind if we join the party?"

Before any of the room's occupants could protest, each youth drew a pistol from his pockets and announced it was a holdup.

After taking $97 from the Horgans and $42 from the Hayes couple, the youths forced the two couples into the bathroom and warned them not to call for help before 15 minutes.

Ten minutes later, Horgan called police.

India Is Cool to Dulles

New Delhi, Nov. 21, (AP)—Most Indian officials appeared cool today to the selection of John Foster Dulles as next U. S. secretary of state. Dulles is not a popular figure in the Indian foreign office partly because there is a feeling he insulted India when he bypassed New Delhi during the consultations prior to the Japanese peace treaty and sent a subordinate to explain the position to Prime Minister Nehru. Top level Indian officials speculated privately over the fate of U. S. Ambassador Chester Bowles, a Democratic appointee.

Volunteers Sought As Spotters for Holiday Periods

The pre-Christmas season means the employment of extra help by many local firms and longer hours of work for persons already employed. This fact poses an acute problem for the Kingston aircraft spotters' post, Mrs. George Dewey Logan, post supervisor, said today.

The need for additional volunteers to replace those lost to business and industry was described by Mrs. Logan as "desperate."

At least 24 more men and 24 more women are needed "at once" to keep the local Ground Observation Corps post operating on its present 24-hour a day, seven days a week schedule.

Early Shifts Hardhit

The men are wanted especially for the three early morning shifts: midnight to 2 a. m.; 2 to 4, and 4 to 6 a. m. Women are needed to serve two hour shifts between 6 a. m. and 10 p. m.

Mrs. Logan announced that she will be at the Civil Defense office in the city hall tonight from 6 to 9 o'clock for the purpose of signing up all volunteers who appear there. Others willing to volunteer but unable to call at the city hall tonight may call Mrs. Logan for an appointment at their convenience.

It was also announced that a film and speakers explaining the function of the spotters is available upon request to any men's or women's organization. Organizations may secure them by contacting Mrs. Logan.

Ming Sing Troupe to Entertain at Ahavath Ball

The full entertainment program has been completed by Herman G. Rafalowsky, for the Ahavath Israel Ball on Wednesday, Nov. 26, in the municipal auditorium, according to announcement by Benjamin Schecter, general chairman. The Ming Sing Troupe, one man and three attractive girls, currently appearing at the Palace Theatre in New York city, is a masterful combination of variety and skill. All members of the troupe are wizards of both back-and-front-bending. To them such stances as "the crab" and "the full butterfly" are elementary. They prefer to combine their contortionistic pictures with difficult hand balancing. In many of their postures they manage to keep a free hand, or sometimes two. In such cases the dexterous hands are occupied with the manipulation of bamboo canes, on the outer ends of which delicate China plates are precariously balanced and spun. It is a fascinating exhibition of the Oriental mastery of mind over matter.

The Ming Sing Troupe has been out of China for some years. Since its departure the Red Sickle has cut a devastating swath through the land of the Mandarins. Ming Sing and his girls came to America by way of France and England. Of present world conditions they will say little, except to express an unswerving adherence to Chiang Kai-shek.

through with marriage. The 32-year-old widow admits to "marrying" four men on the island—two of whom were slain because of her. She told Kyodo News Service she will remain single and make her living in an Okinawa dress shop. Mrs. Higa is to appear in one of Tokyo's largest theatres to tell her story of primitive love and peril. She and the men were taken from the island after World War 2 by Americans. She returned to her native Okinawa.
